

THE KENNETH A. FREIRICH
BUSINESS PLAN COMPETITION

INTENT TO COMPETE

By submitting a business idea to the Freirich Business Plan Competition, each contestant listed below agrees to the following conditions:

Originality of Plan: The ideas and concepts set forth in the ideas are the original work of the eligible entrants and the eligible entrants are not under any agreement or restrictions that prohibit or restrict his or her ability to disclose or submit such ideas or concepts to the competition. Excluded are the following: buyouts, real estate syndications, tax shelters, franchises, licensing agreements for distribution in a different geographical area, and spin-offs from existing corporations.

Compliance with Guidelines of the Competition: By competing, each contestant has reviewed the rules set forth in the Freirich Business Plan Competition Guidelines, and by his or her signature below certifies that this entry and the team or individual it represents complies with the guidelines. Moreover, each competitor agrees to participate in a weekly business plan writing workshop. A majority of participants in each business must be enrolled in classes at Skidmore and that majority of persons must have controlling interest in the business.

Waivers and Releases: Each team or individual understands that Skidmore College, the sponsors, judges, mentors, organizers and its directors, officers, partners, employees, consultants, and agents are volunteers and are under no obligation to render any advice or service to any contestant. The views expressed by the judges, sponsors, organizers and representatives are their own and not those of Skidmore College or any person or entity.

Each team or individual understands and agrees that the Competition officials will respect the confidentiality of ideas and submitted business plans. In consideration of the time provided by the Competition officials, each team and individual hereby voluntarily releases each Competition official from any liabilities, further responsibilities, and accountabilities relating to or arising out of such Competition official's participation in the Freirich Competition.

Deadline: October 10, 2011. Please return completed and signed form scanned into a .pdf file to Professor Roy Rotheim, rrotheim@skidmore.edu.
